Identify the point of view in the passage below from Defoe's novel Robinson Crusoe (1719), and then transform it into the alternative type. What is (are) difference(s) between the two? “Nothing can describe the confusion of thought which I felt when I sank into the water; for though I swam very well, yet I could not deliver myself from the waves so as to draw breath, till that wave having driven me, or rather carried me, a vast way on towards the shore, and having spent itself, went back, and left me upon the land almost dry, but half dead with the water I took in. I had so much presence of mind, as well as breathe left, that seeing myself nearer the mainland than I expected.”	موضوع الدراسة البحثية
